Author Bio

Short Version

Brooklyn native and award-winning, romantic suspense author Zara West loves all things dark, scary, and heart-stopping as long as they lead to true love.

Medium Version

Born in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, Zara spends winters in New York where the streets hum with life, summers in Maritimes where the sea can be cruel, and the rest of the year anywhere inspiration for tales of suspense, mystery, and romance are plentiful. A member of RWA, Zara is an award-winning author of both fiction and non-fiction. This is her first romantic suspense.

Long Version

Born in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, Zara spends winters in New York where the streets hum with life, summers in the Maritimes where the sea can be cruel, and the rest of the year anywhere inspiration for tales of suspense, mystery, and romance are plentiful.

An accomplished artist by training and passion, she brings a love of art to every book she writes. When not marooned on an island or chasing after Greek shepherds, Zara tends her organic herb garden, collects hats and cats, and whips up ethnic dishes for friends and family.

A member of RWA, Zara West is an award-winning author of both fiction and non-fiction. This is her first romantic suspense.

Bragging rights

A professional artist, Zara's handcrafted clothing and creations have been sold in Bloomingdales, Altman's, Putumayo, the Museum of American Folk Art and more. She has done ethnographic fieldwork among the shepherds of Greece and Italy, gone head to head with a flock of 400 sheep and 30 milk goats, and in her spare time, written award-winning stories, books and magazine articles.

A member of Romance Writers of America, Kiss of Death, and Hearts Through History, Zara's short stories have appeared in several anthologies, and she has received awards from Women on Writing, Stone Thread Publishing, Tryst Literary Magazine, and Winning Writers. Her novels have placed first in the Romance Through the Ages contest, second in the Touch of Love Contest, and long-listed for the Myslexia Award.
